

Biography
Clifton J. Latiolais

Born: Breaux Bridge, La.

Education: Loyola University, New Orleans, La.
School of Pharmacy, Bachelor's degree (1952)

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.
College of Pharmacy, Master's degree in hospital pharmacy

University of Michigan Hospital, Ann Arbor, Mich.
Hospital Pharmacy Residency

Positions Held: Assistant Chief Pharmacist
University of Chicago Hospitals, Chicago, Ill.

Chief Pharmacist
University of Rochester Strong Memorial Hospital, Rochester,
N.Y.

Assistant Director
ASHP/APhA Audit of Pharmaceutical Services in Hospitals,
Bethesda, Md.

Director
The Ohio State University Hospitals, Columbus, Ohio

Professor
The Ohio State University College of Pharmacy, Columbus, Ohio

Significant Offices: American Society of Health-System Pharmacists, President
American Pharmacists Association, President
American Managed Care Association, President
Ohio Society of Health-System Pharmacists, President

Significant Awards: Harvey A.K. Whitney Lecture Award

Honorary Doctor of Science, Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science

Major Professional Accomplishments:

- ◆ Developed innovative pharmaceutical services such as nuclear pharmacy, intravenous admixtures, pharmacy coordinated unit dose and drug administration, clinical services and pharmacy computerization.

- ◆ Conducted intravenous admixture training sessions across the country for hospital pharmacists.
- ◆ Trained 129 master's degree residents in hospital pharmacy administration, many of which went on to hold key leadership positions across the country.
- ◆ Used the hospital pharmacy practice to train undergraduate pharmacy students.