

Biography
Max Douglas Ray

Born: Spartanburg, SC

Education: University of South Carolina, Charleston, SC
College of Pharmacy, Bachelor's Degree (1962)

University of Tennessee, Memphis, TN
College of Graduate Studies, Master's Degree, Hospital Pharmacy

University of Tennessee, Memphis, TN
College of Pharmacy, Doctorate of Pharmacy

Methodist Hospital, Memphis, TN
Hospital Pharmacy Residency

Positions Held: Staff Pharmacist
Greenville General Hospital, Greenville, SC

Teaching Assistant/Instructor/Assistant Professor of Clinical Pharmacy
College of Pharmacy
University of Tennessee, Memphis, TN

Chief Pharmacist/Director/Residency Program Director
Medical University Hospital, Medical University of South
Carolina, Charleston, SC

Instructor/Assistant Professor of Pharmacy
Director/Associate Professor of Clinical Pharmacy
College of Pharmacy, Division of Clinical Pharmacy
Medical University of South Carolina, Charleston, SC

Director, Clinical Services Department
Director, Accreditation Services Department
Director, Professional Practice Division
American Society of Hospital Pharmacists

Executive Vice President
California Society of Hospital Pharmacists

Associate Director/ Pharmacy Residency Program Director
University of California San Diego Medical Center

Professor and Dean, College of Pharmacy
Western University, Pomona, California

Professor of Pharmaceutical Sciences
Health Outcomes and Policy Research Division
College of Pharmacy
University of Tennessee, Memphis, TN

Significant Awards: Harvey A.K. Whitney Lecture Award

John Webb Visiting Professor, Northeastern University, Boston, MA

South Carolina Hospital Pharmacist of the Year

California Hospital Pharmacist of the Year

Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters

Major Professional Accomplishments:

- Envisioned and conducted the ASHP Hilton Head Conference in 1985, which was a seminal clinical pharmacy consensus conference.
- Led the development of clinical services and education at the Medical Colleges of South Carolina.
- Enhanced the student professional experience at Western University.