

Biography
Mary Jo Reilly

Born: Clairton, PA

Education: Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, PA
School of Pharmacy, Bachelor's Degree (1959)

Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, PA
School of Pharmacy, Master's Degree

Positions Held: Resident/Staff Pharmacist/Assistant Chief Pharmacist/
Assistant Director of Central Services
Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, PA

Assistant Editor/Managing Editor/Editor/Editor-In-Chief
American Hospital Formulary Service
American Society of Hospital (Health-System) Pharmacists

Director, Bureau of Communications and Publication Services
American Society of Hospital (Health-System) Pharmacists

Senior Vice President/ Chief Operating Officer
American Society of Hospital (Health-System) Pharmacists

Significant Awards: Harvey A.K. Whitney Lecture Award

Vanguard Leadership Award, Lambda Kappa Sigma

Honorary Doctorate of Science, Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science

Major Professional Accomplishments:

- ◆ Successfully administered several government contracts awarded to ASHP to develop the drug portion of the toxicology data bank for the National Library of Medicine and to develop a class labeling system for drugs for the Food and Drug Administration.
- ◆ Supervised the development and implementation of the ASHP Advantage program.
- ◆ Oversaw the creation of the member sections within ASHP.