

Holly Phillips

Acute Care Pharmacists Supervisor
University of Colorado Hospital

Holly Phillips, Pharm.D., is the Acute Care Pharmacists Supervisor at the University of Colorado Hospital (UCH). She has also served as the PGY1 Pharmacy Residency Program Director since 2004. She received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Texas College of Pharmacy, and she completed an ASHP-accredited PGY1 residency at the University of Colorado Hospital. Dr. Phillips serves as a Clinical Assistant Professor in the Department of Clinical Pharmacy at the University of Colorado Denver School of Pharmacy. She has actively participated in numerous preceptor development activities through her role as vice-chair of the University HealthSystem Consortium's Pharmacy Council Research and Education Committee. She also serves as a member of the ASHP Section Advisory Group on Preceptor Development. Dr. Phillips has presented preceptor development educational programs at the ASHP National Residency Preceptors Conference in 2010 and at the ASHP Midyear Clinical Meeting in 2009.

Prior to her current position, she served as the Multidisciplinary Project Coordinator at UCH for nine years, focusing on process improvement between the departments of pharmacy and nursing with an emphasis on communication issues and technology implications on the medication management system.

She is a 2010 graduate of the ASHP Foundation's Center for Health-System Pharmacy's Pharmacy Leadership Institute.
