

Heather Miller, Pharm.D., BCPS

Heather Miller, Pharm.D., BCPS is a clinical pharmacy specialist in primary care at Providence Medical Group. She obtained her Bachelor of Science degree in Zoology & Physiology in 1996 from the University of Wyoming and then went on to earn a Doctor of Pharmacy degree, also at University of Wyoming, in 2001. She then completed a Pharmacy Practice Residency with Providence Health & Services (previously Providence Health System), and a Specialty Residency in Primary Care with Providence Medical Group in 2003.

Dr. Miller is Board Certified in Pharmacotherapy and serves as Affiliate Faculty for Oregon State University College of Pharmacy. Dr. Miller was recognized by the Oregon Society of Health System Pharmacists as the 2013 Pharmacist Practitioner of the Year. Growing up in the Rocky Mountains, Dr. Miller continues to enjoy many of the outdoor activities that occupied her youth, including hiking, camping, fishing, running, and skiing