

ASHP Foundation 2017 IMPACT REPORT

What We're Most Proud Of 16,527,900

consumers heard our public service announcements and interviews about how to safely store and dispose of their expired and unused medicines during Patient Safety Awareness Week. This topic resonated with communities across the nation battling the opioid epidemic. Studies report that up to 80 percent of people who abuse opioids obtain them from a family member or friend, often taking them from medicine cabinets.

$275,000

granted to support residency program training at 11 institutions. The Foundation has provided more than $3.2 million in funding to establish 88 new residency positions since 2011.

The Pharmacy Residency Expansion Grant Program is supported by Abbvie, Amgen, and Merck.

$238,206

awarded in research funding. These grant programs support research by new investigators, pharmacy residents, and established researchers seeking to improve medication safety and patient care through innovative studies.

133

pharmacists enhanced their leadership skills by participating in the Foundation's Pharmacy Leadership Academy and Pharmacy Leadership Institute. The Foundation supported visits to 26 residency programs by pharmacy leaders through the Visiting Leaders Program and 8 presentations to Student Societies of Health-System Pharmacy through the Leadership Speakers Bureau.

The Academy is supported by Amgen, and the Institute is supported by Baxter.

The Visiting Leaders Program is supported by the David A. Zilz Leaders for the Future Fund and the Sara J. White Leadership Fund.

33,400

downloads of the Pharmacy Forecast 2017, our annual report about trends that may impact pharmacy practice – making it the year's most downloaded AJHP article.

Pharmacy Forecast 2017 was supported by a grant from Omnicell, Inc., to the ASHP Foundation's David A. Zilz Leaders for the Future Fund.

2,201

practitioners who developed expanded knowledge and skills in effective pain management, an essential component to tackling the opioid epidemic, through Foundation programs.

13

countries are represented by the Pharmacy Leadership Academy alumni. The leadership training offered in this program has had positive impact on patient care around the globe!

Programs Offered in 2017

Pharmacy Residency Excellence Awards

Two of the 2017 Pharmacy Residency Excellence Awardees proudly display their plaques: Preceptor Awardee Emmanuelle Schwartzman of Western University of Health Sciences College of Pharmacy, and New Preceptor Awardee Joshua Elder of Norton's Children's Hospital. These awards recognize excellence and leadership in the training and mentoring of residents.

The Pharmacy Residency Excellence Awards Program is supported by Amgen.

Pharmacy Residency Excellence Program Awardee

A proud Michelle McCarthy, residency program director at University of Virginia Health System, joins her gleeful group of preceptors, residents, and former residents to show off their Pharmacy Residency Excellence Program Award plaque.

Award for Excellence in Medication Safety

UNC Medical Center

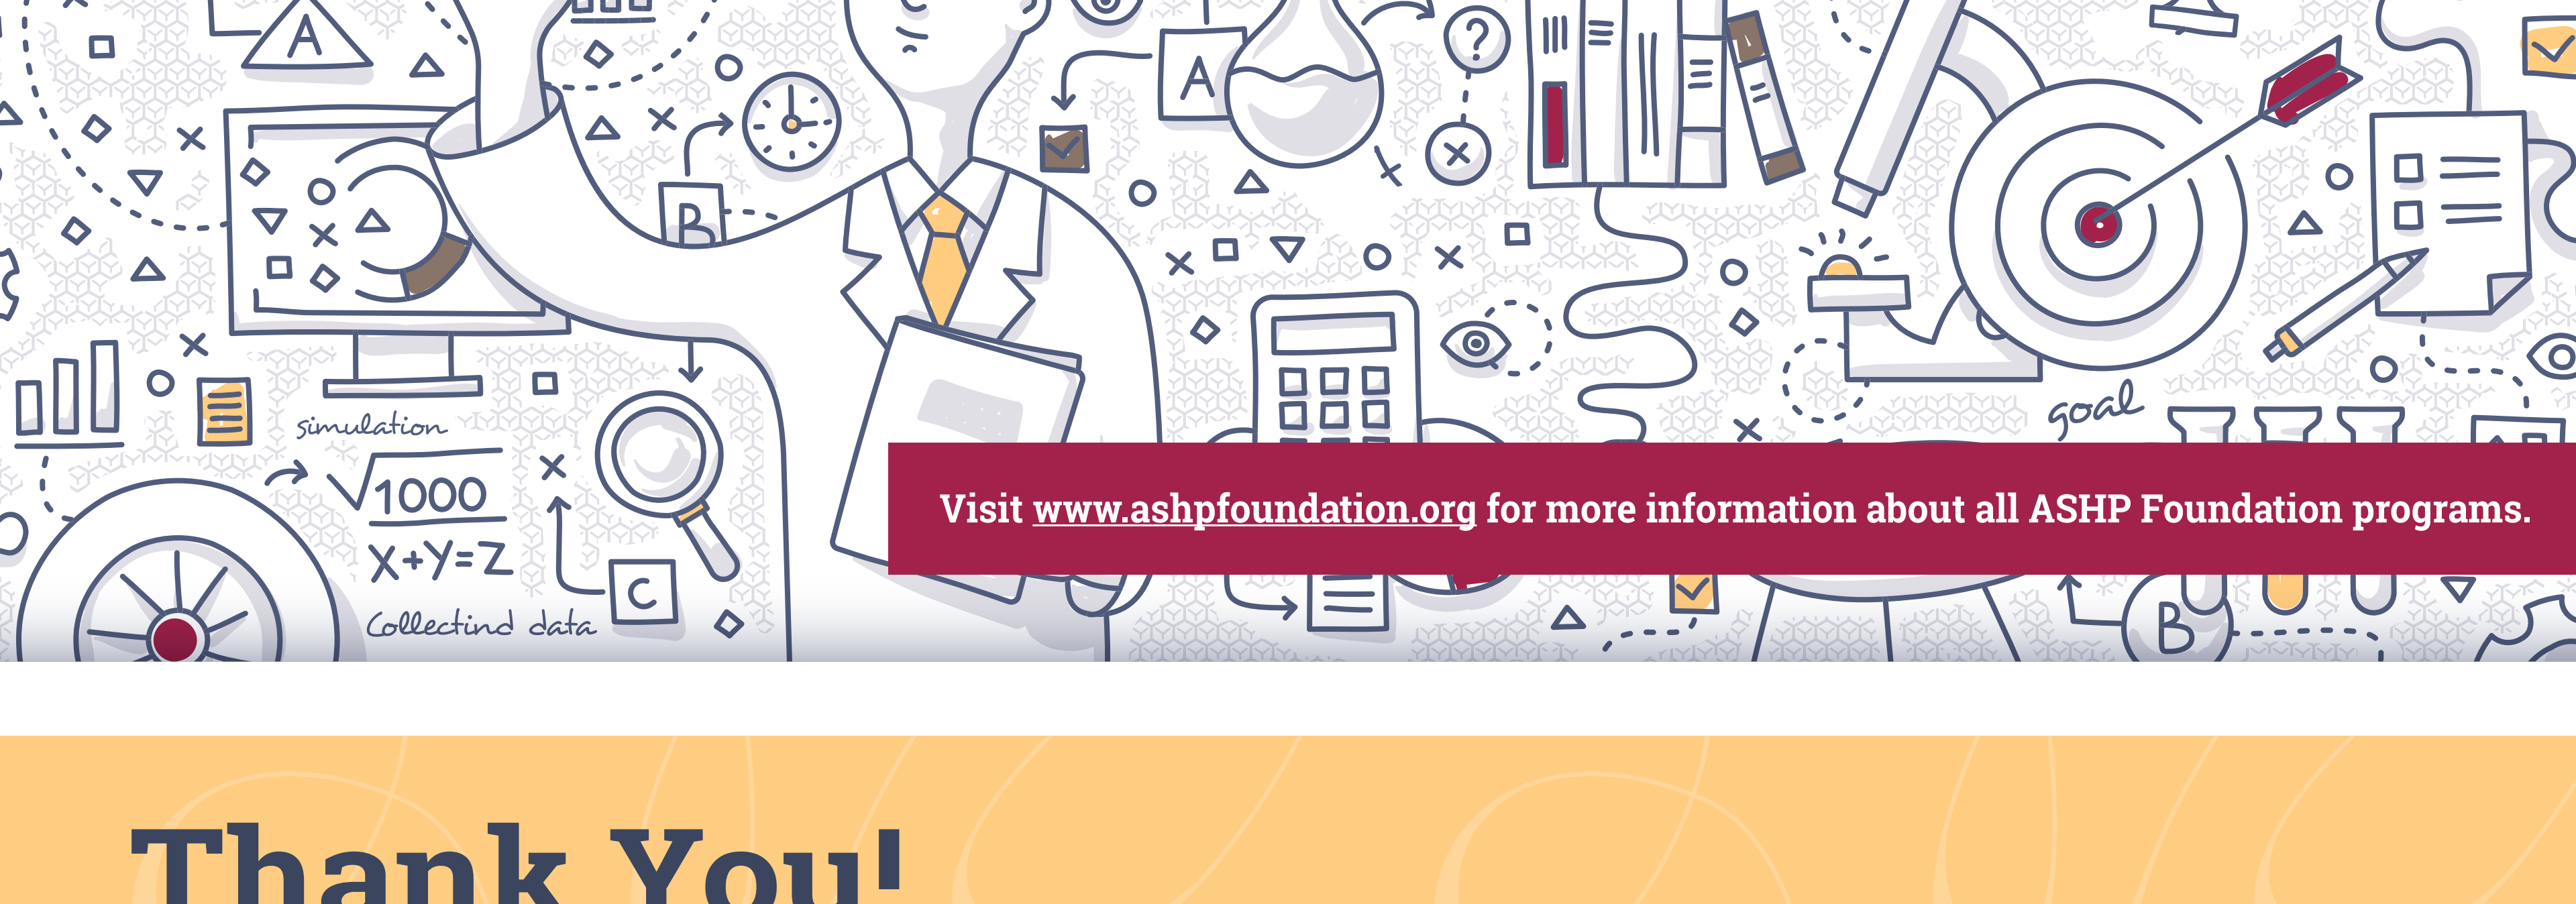

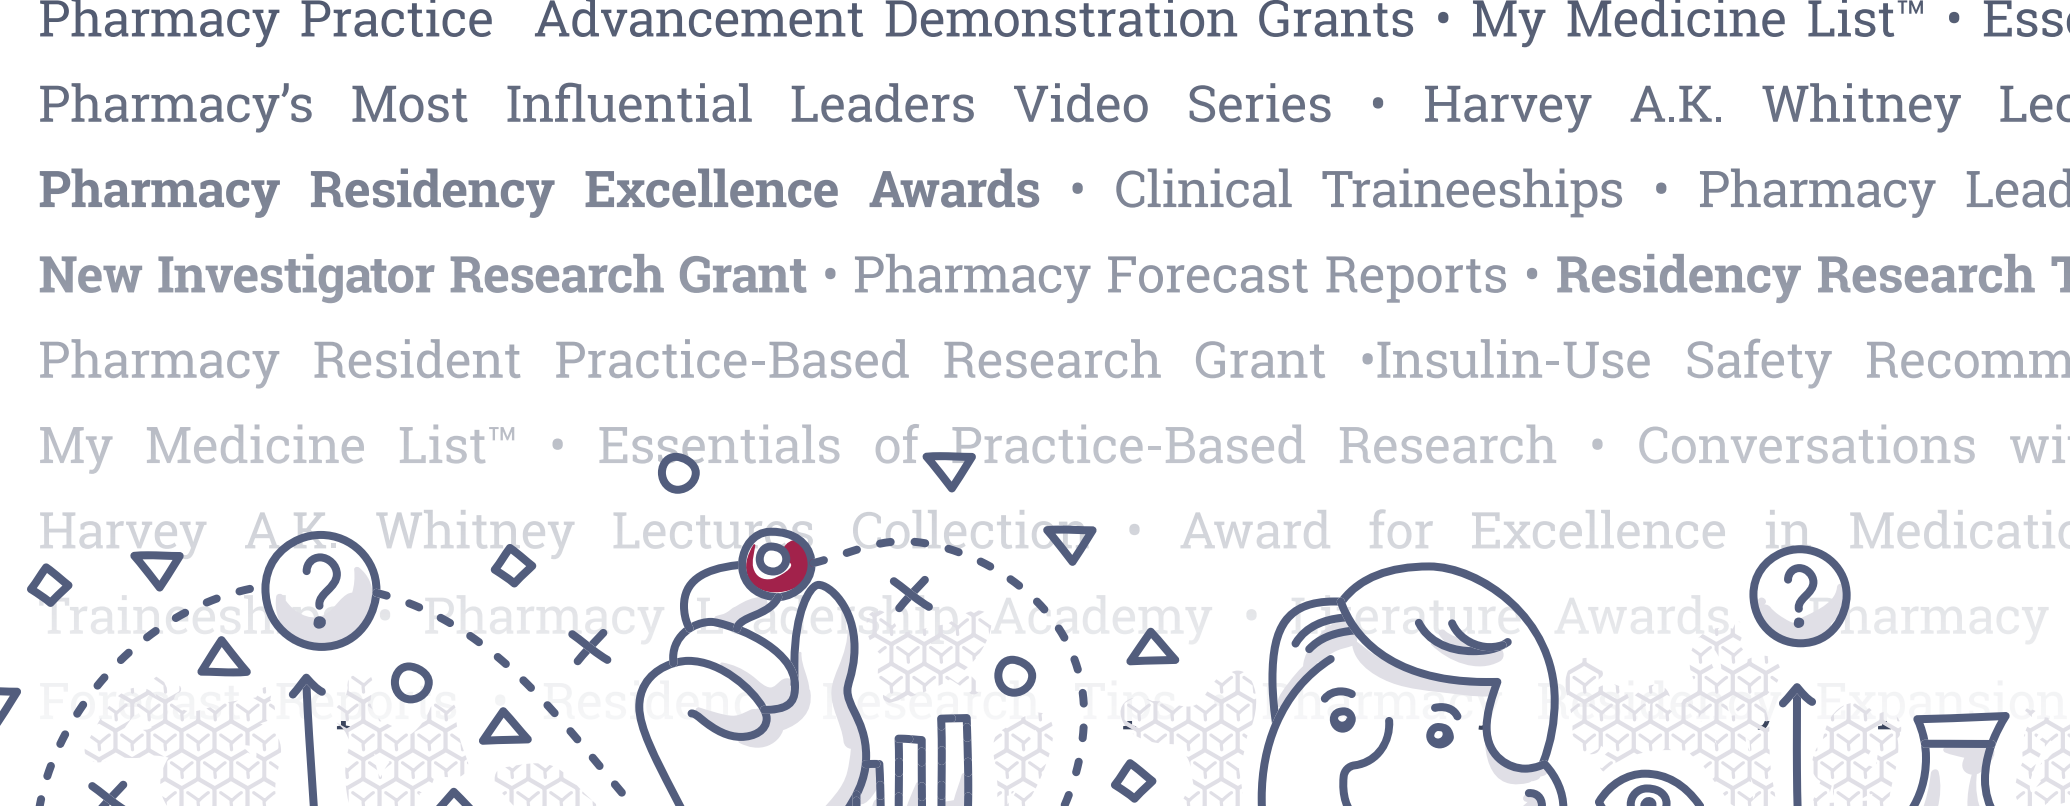

Members of the UNC Medical Center team, recipient of the 2017 Award for Excellence in Medication Safety, pictured left to right: Tanner Hedrick, Lindsey Amerine, Andrew Stivers, Kalyann Rohde, Jonathan Cicci, Kayla Waldron, Scott Savage. This program recognizes a pharmacist-led interdisciplinary team for its significant system-wide improvements relating to medication safety.

The Award for Excellence in Medication Safety is supported by the Cardinal Health Foundation.

Literature Awards

These awards recognize original, significant contributions to biomedical literature by pharmacists. The 2017 awardees were, from left to right: Cary Cochran, Pharmacy Practice Research Award; Dima Oato, Drug Therapy Research Award; Melanie Engels, Award for Innovation in Pharmacy Practice; and Brian Erstad, Award for Sustained Contributions. (Not pictured: Student Research Awardee Garrett Berger.)

Visit www.ashpfoundation.org for more information about all ASHP Foundation programs.

Thank You!

Thank you, donors!!! We are so grateful for the support of individuals and corporations alike! In 2017, Foundation donors contributed more than $2.3 million. You continue, through your gifts, to improve patient care and make advancements in medication safety.

Corporate supporters and individual donors alike enjoyed the ASHP Foundation Donor Wine Tasting Gala in June 2017. Pictured left to right are Todd Karpinski, Ryan Roux, Laura B. Stokes, and BD representative Ryan Forrey.

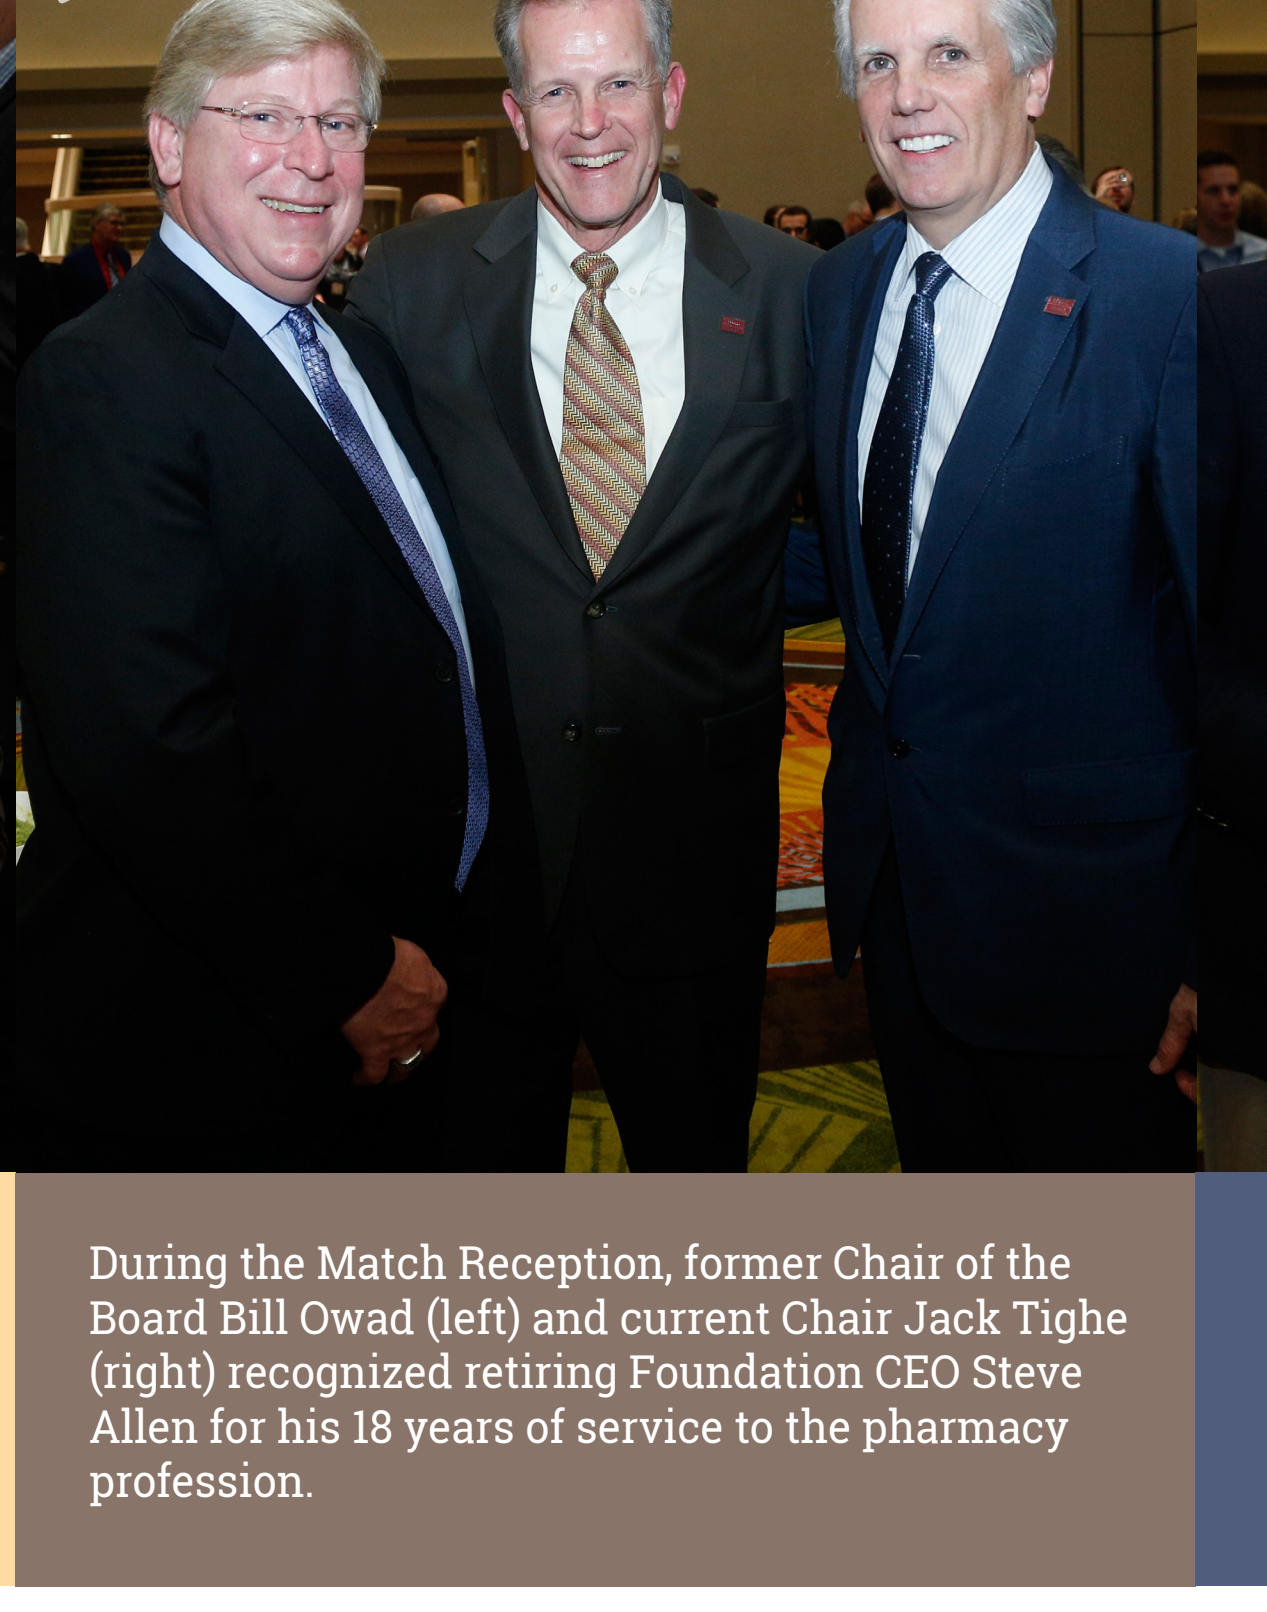

Erin Fox and Christopher Fortier showed their support for the ASHP Foundation during the Donor Wine Tasting Gala held at the ASHP 2017 Summer Meetings in Minneapolis.

Kristy Butler and Heather Miller were just two of more than 300 guests who attended the Foundation's annual Match for Med Safety Reception in Orlando.

David Choi and Melissa Laub, pharmacy residents at Johns Hopkins and Duke, respectively, attended the Match for Med Safety Reception along with members of their residency classes. Both residency programs have made annual class gifts to the Foundation for more than a decade.

During the Match Reception, former Chair of the Board Bill Owad (left) and current Chair Jack Tighe (right) recognized retiring Foundation CEO Steve Allen for his 18 years of service to the pharmacy profession.

ASHP Board Treasurer Tom Johnson, Foundation Board member Janet Mighty, and ASHP Board member Linda Tyler attended the Match Reception to donate and catch up with colleagues from around the country.

To see a complete listing of our 2017 contributors, visit www.ashpfoundation.org/2017Donors.

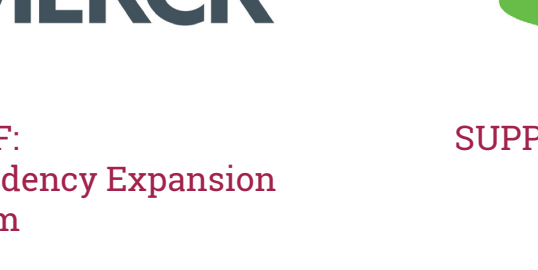

Partners We Love

The ASHP Foundation Thanks Our 2017 Corporate Partners

Donor Match Supporters

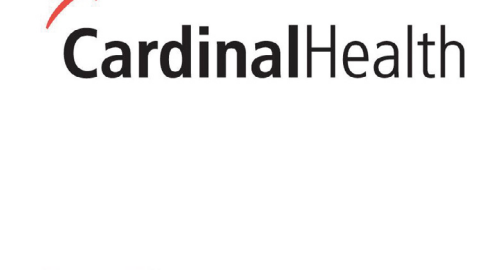

Major Program Supporters

Corporate Membership Program

GOLD

BRONZE

To learn more about the Corporate Membership Program or program support opportunities, visit www.ashpfoundation.org/ForCorporations.

Celebrate Our Golden Anniversary!!!

In 2018, we are celebrating the ASHP Foundation's 50th Anniversary. Ready to celebrate with us? Here's how:

Attend the 50th Anniversary Kick-Off Event on June 4, 2018, at the ASHP Summer Meetings in Denver, Colorado, and the 50th Anniversary Celebration on December 2, 2018, at the ASHP Midyear in Anaheim, California.

Make a commemorative contribution of $50 to celebrate 50 years!

Share a Foundation resource that you've thought was especially helpful with a colleague and spread the word about the ASHP Foundation! (The Pharmacy Forecast 2018 is a popular tool and can be downloaded for free!)

Let your colleagues know that you're a donor and celebrating the ASHP Foundation's anniversary! Posting messages on your social media pages is a great way to do this!

www.ashpfoundation.org

